From Their Majesties

Populace of the Outlands harken to Our words and pay heed.

We send this missive in hopes that it finds one and all ready for the cooling winds of fall and the beauty that is the Outlands as those cool winds coax Our forests and mountains to reveal the green and gold.

Crown Tournament will be held on the second weekend of this month in Our fair Barony of Dragonsspine. We encourage all to attend this momentous occasion where Our heirs will be decided by feats of valor and honor on the tournament field. We hope that all Outlanders who are able will attend to witness the pageantry and experience the excitement. We would caution all spectators, consorts and entrants that comments from the sidelines should and will be limited to sounds of encouragement only. We do not wish to hear any comments questioning the honor of the combatants or being negative toward anyone in any way. By this same token, praise and applause should be shared equally for all those combatants who fight well or are especially chivalrous. We thank you for your enthusiasm beforehand and know that all will benefit and enjoy a day of courteousness and chivalry as exemplified by all in attendance.

We and Our Heirs will be meeting with Our Royal Cousins of Atenveldt, Artemesia, and Caid during the first weekend of October. We will meet in Atenveldt to discuss the terms and scenarios for the next Estrella War treaty. This war will be fought on its traditional weekend in February at the new Schnepf Farms site. We have asked several advisors to attend Us during the actual negotiations, but will accept any comments that the populace may have concerning the upcoming war. Such comments should be directed to Ourselves in writing before We leave for the event, that We may represent the needs and desires of the Outlands to the fullest extent.

In service to the Outlands,

Hrothgar Madigan

From The Seneschal

Most courteous greetings unto the good gentles of the Kingdom of the Outlands from your Kingdom Seneschal,

I look forward to seeing many of you at Crown Tournament this month in the Barony of Dragonsspine. It promises to be a most auspicious occasion! Then in October, join everyone in the Shire of Windkeep for Arts & Sciences Collegium. I am pleased to announce that Coronation will be held in the Shire of Nahrun Kabirun, so pack your traveling beasts and make your way to this glorious ceremony!

Please consider bidding on a Kingdom event and submit your bid to THLd Adam as early as you can. If you have questions about hosting a Kingdom event, please call Countess AnneAliz, Kingdom Events Coordinator, or Contesâ Mikhailina for A & S events. I know there are many groups out there quite able to host such events.

Current nominees from the Outlands for the Board of Directors are Keith Dodd (Jarl Gunwaldt) and Joan Lambert (Duchess Jeanne). The Board of Directors encourages comments (always held in confidence) on nominees from any Kingdom and considers those comments when choosing new Board members. You are also welcome to make nominations. Send comments and/or nominations to Susan Earley, Board Recruiting, 4 N. 400 Church Rd., Bensenville, IL 60106.

Congratulations to Freiherr (Baron) Klaus on his new position as Interkingdom Advisory Council representative for the Kingdom of the Outlands. Many thanks to Master Roderick for his long and faithful service as IAC Representative. Please answer the call when His Excellency asks for your opinions on topics that affect the SCA. Remember that THLd Balthazar is our Grand Council Representative and will ask for your ideas as well. Your thoughts and ideas have no voice unless you share them!

Please read the letter from the Executive Assistant to the Board of Directors regarding a change in Corpora to allow posthumous awards. The Board has invited commentary, preferably in more detail and greater thought than "do it" or "I hate it". Please respond post haste so that the Board can know your mind and make a decision quickly.

May your travels be enlightening and free from harm,

Coemri

From the Kingdom Event Coordinator

Greetings!

As Mistress Coemri has announced in her letters I am the Deputy Seneschal for Kingdom Events. I was very pleased to be given this position, and look forward to working with all groups interested in sponsoring a kingdom event. November Coronation will be in Nahrun Kabirun.

AnneAliz

From the White Stag Principal Herald

Greetings from Lord Pendar the Bard, White Stag Principal Herald.

I don't have much to say this month. I would like to thank all of the heralds in the Outlands for doing such a fabulous job. If anyone who is not already being recognized as a herald on the College of Heralds roster would like to become one, please feel free to contact me. The more people that support heraldry in the kingdom, the better it becomes.

The following items were registered by Laurel in July 1998. Congratulations!

André de Foucault. Device change. Sable, a compass star elongated to base quarterly Or and argent supported by two lions queue forchy combatant, that to dexter Or and that to sinister argent.

From the Chronicler

Unto the Populace of the Outlands does Rüdeger send Greetings!

As many have noticed, Lord Duncan MacAllister has taken over production of the Outlandish Herald, starting with last month's issue. There was no letter explaining what's going on last month, as I usually write my letter while doing the last-minute touches on the OH, and since I didn't do those last month, I didn't think about the letter until it was too late.

Thus, this somewhat-belated missive. Lord Duncan is handling the production of the newsletter, and can be viewed as its editor. THLdy Illeana is our copy-editor - she makes sure that event articles contain all required information, and are presented in a reasonable facsimile of English. I remain in the role of publisher and executive editor. All submissions, queries, etc., should be directed to myself, and I will respond or forward them as appropriate. The main reason for this is that, by maintaining a single point of contact, at least one of us knows everything that's going on, and knows who is most likely to be current on that particular item.

Recently, I have been the ecstatic recipient of unsolicited artwork. This is a truly wonderful thing, that I would like to encourage. In order to make life easier for both the artist and my staff, here are the guidelines for submitting artwork:

- draw on white paper
- subtle pencil shadings do not reproduce well; use line shading instead
- please include a release form (available from your local chronicler)
- if submitting artwork electronically, please use GIF, TIFF, or JPEG format scanned as a black-and-white image (no gray-scale)

Electronic submission is preferred, but a physical copy of the release form is needed in any case.

Since there is a new person doing the OH, things will change. Hopefully, most of these are minor details which no one will care about. Please, let us know what you like and don't like, both in older issues and in the new ones. If there's something that you would like to see added, tell us. I do ask that comments be constructive, as in "please change such-n-such in this way." In particular, asking for something to be added without giving any idea of how to get supporting material is not necessarily very useful.

In Service to the Outlands,

Rüdeger

From the Chancellor of the Exchequer

Unto the Gentles of the Outlands, Greetings.

For over two years, I have had the honor of serving this Kingdom as Chancellor of the Exchequer. After much thought, I have decided to step down. THLd Bjorn Poulson from Caer Galen will be the next Outlands Exchequer. His information is on the Officers page of this issue. The date the office changes hands is up in the air. We wish it to coincide with the change in Corporate officers in late October so we won't have to change signature cards more than once. Please give him the same cooperation you have afforded me. I would like to thank the local officers who have made this job much easier for me. It has been an enjoyable experience working with all of you. Third quarter reports will be mailed to Bjorn.

In Service,

Mistress Aldyth Trefaldwyn
Exchequer, Outlands

Request for Comments on a Proposed Corpora Change

From Andrew Smith, Executive Assistant to the Board of Directors, To all the members of the Society for Creative Anachronism.

On December 27 of last year, the Middle Kingdom was struck with sorrow when Scott Hall, also known as Crown Prince Jafar al-Safa, Knight, Pelican, and Count, succumbed to a staph infection, and passed away. His Lady, Kenna Harve, was subsequently crowned, and is currently serving the Middle Kingdom as Queen Regnant.

The Board of Directors recently received a petition, signed by over 600 members of the Middle Kingdom, requesting that the Midrealm be allowed to honor Jafar by posthumously awarding him with the title and estate of a Duke in the Society for Creative Anachronism.

The Board of Directors is completely aware and respectful of the sentiments surrounding the petition. Jafar had a sterling reputation throughout the Known World, and his conduct was exemplary for all who would call themselves knight or gentleman. The Board recognizes the pain and difficulty Jafar's passing has placed on the subjects of the Middle Kingdom and especially upon his Lady, Queen Kenna, and the Board understands that Jafar's people need closure.

The primary document of the Current Middle Ages is Corpora, which states the following:

"VI.A.2.a.(5). The Crown shall acknowledge attainment of Ducal, County, or Viscounty rank by those who have met the requirements."

"VII.C.3. Standard and Alternate Titles. The Society's standard titles are defined in Appendix C..."

"Appendix C. Duke/Duchess: Persons who have reigned over a kingdom 2 or more times. The title is assumed at the end of the second complete reign."

As much as the Directors wish to grant the petitioners' request to honor the memory of such a remarkable man in this fashion, according to the letter of the law, they cannot.

However, the Board is aware similar tragic circumstances have occurred in the past, and recognizes that unfortunately, more may occur in the future. Therefore, the Board of Directors wishes comments from the membership on the following proposed change to Corpora:

"VI.A.1.c.(2).a.: Should extreme and extraordinary circumstances, such as death, prevent a Crown or Coronet from completing the requirements of Corpora VI.A.1.c.(2), the Board of Directors may, upon petition, and on a case by case basis, waive the requirements in Corpora VI.A.1.c.(2) to allow the bestowing of a royal peerage or royal title."

Please send your comments to SCA, Inc., Box 360789, Militias CA 95036-0789, no later than October 5, 1998.

From the Board of Directors

New Board Nominees:

Beth Morris	Mistress Keilyn FitzWarin	Atlantia	until January 2001

There are currently 24 people on the nomination list. This is the first new nomination (who accepted and sent in their resume) in 6 months.

Comments on nominees are GREATLY appreciated by the Board of Directors. Any new nominations that you wish to make are GLADLY received. Any member is free to nominate themselves as well. Remember that ALL information in these letters is kept COMPLETELY confidential, and no one elected to the board sees commentary on themselves. I have been responding to emails and letters within one week. If you haven't heard from me within two weeks, I never got your letter.

Send all comments and nominations to Susan Earley, Board Recruiting, 4N400 Church Rd., Bensenville, IL 60106, or susan.earley@360.com. Please include your name and address in any letter sent concerning these matters, and remember to include the name and address of anyone you nominate for the Board.

REMEMBER: I am reporting quarterly to each Crown and Kingdom Seneschal the counts (only the counts) of nominations and comments received from members of the populace in the Realms (and they were down from the first quarter!).

Silver Pass Tourney / Founder's Feast IV

Rio de las Animas Perdidas / al-Barran, September 4-7, AS XXXIII (1998)

Greetings to the populace of the Known World from the Incipient Shire of Rio de las Animas Perdidas. All are most heartily invited to join us in this, our Fourth Founders' Feast and Third Challenge, in one of the most beautiful areas in our Kingdom, Durango, CO.

Our shire has been caught in a border dispute over the claim to the Silver Pass (Red Mountain) between Silverton and Ouray. Presently the map shows Silverton on the Outlands' side and Ouray on Artemisia's side of the border. The outcome of this event will determine who holds the Pass for the next year. The Outlands currently holds the Silver Pass, but Artemisia feels they will claim it this year.

The site will open Friday, September 4, at 2pm and will close Monday, September 7, at noon. We have the same gorgeous location this year: 52 acres of trees and a huge meadow located about 8 miles NE of Durango, with water on site (but you might want to bring extra). The address is 609 Elk Meadow Drive, but street signs are quite scarce in this area. Note that this is at an altitude of about 6800 feet.

Late Saturday morning will be a Light Weapons tourney to determine the Shire Defender. This will be followed by a Heavy Weapons Challenge Tourney, which will decide who bears the Silver Pass insignia for one year and claims the Pass for their Kingdom.

Other activities for Saturday include a Children's Story Time, Face Painting, Royal Archery Rounds, Children's Archery Shoot (style not yet determined), an A&S competition (meads and such will have a separate category this year). This will be followed by a feast with a German flair and the bardic competition.

Sunday morning we invite you to join us at the kitchen for bagels, jellies, cream cheese, coffee, and tea (it's included in the site fee). Then the youngsters get ready for a Boffer Tourney - please bring safety equipment.

Early in the afternoon the fields will be cleared for a melee (scenario undetermined) and a 3-D archery shoot. A Fighters' Collegium is in the planning stages.

Be it known that all prizes are as tempting as last year's . The weekend also includes multiple hand-fastings.

Fees: Site $12, feast $6; for children 6-12, $3 site, $3 feast; children under 6 are free. Make checks payable to SCA - Rio de las Animas Perdidas.

This is a damp site with all state and federal laws enforced. No open fires (Colemans okay), dogs must be on leashes at all times, period containers, displayed fire extinguishers, etc. Merchants are Welcome! Please contact the Autocrat.

Please remember that a new waiver and notarized Statement of Guardianship form must be presented for any minor (i.e., under 18) attending without a custodial parent. The appointed legal guardian must be 21 or over.

Directions: Take your best route to Durango, CO. Follow Highway 160 east to CR 234 (roughly 1.5 miles from the city limits). Turn north and proceed 1 mile to CR 228. Turn east onto and drive 5.5 miles (note that 228 curves north). Turn right at SCA sign (you are now on Elk Meadow Drive, but there's no official sign saying so) and continue 100 yards. There you'll turn/bear left at the Y-intersection and drive 1/4 mile to the site. There will be signs posted from 160 to the site.

Unser Hafen, September 19-20, AS XXXIII (1998)

On September 19th and 20th Unser Hafen will be holding our fourth annual Equestrian championship to find our Champion of the Horse. This year we will bring on more of the air of the faire! There will be faire food available at booths, betting on the various competitions, and of course, faire competitions. Prizes will be awarded to the, uhm, most successful at their betting.

Equestrians, be prepared to exhibit feats of precision riding, and enter the Quintain Joust tournament if you dare! Other sundry and challenging competitions will also await you. For you archers out there, we will be having a Robin Hood shoot and an Archers Dual competition as well as other entertaining means to show who is the best archer in the land!

For those gentles that do not shoot or ride, we will have Hunker Hausen, tick fighting, and other competitions to delight the participants (and no doubt, the on-lookers as well!)

On Sunday we will run both Inter-Kingdom equestrian and archery competitions as time and interest permit. The fun starts at 10:00 AM on both days and ends at 7 pm. See you there!

The site will be the CSU Equestrian Center, the large field. In case of inclement weather, we will move indoors to the main arena (yes, it IS big enough).

The site fee will be $5.00, $8.00 for riders. Children under 12 are half that, and children under 6 are free. Faire food is included in the site fee. Make checks payable to SCA – Unser Hafen.

SITE RESTRICTIONS: No other pets are allowed on-site. This is a dry site and no smoking is allowed indoors. Because there will be horses and archery on-site most of the time, this can be a dangerous situation for unsupervised children. Parents, please, PLEASE supervise children at all times. The autocrats thank you!

We will not charge more at the door than if you call ahead, but calling the autocrat before the event will be appreciated!

Directions: Take either I-25 to Ft. Collins, exit 269 (Mulberry), follow Mulberry West until you reach Overland Trail, here, turn South (left) and turn West (right) into the CSU Equestrian Center - there are signs, you can't miss it! If you are coming into Fort Collins via Highway 287, the directions are the same, go to Mulberry which is on the North side of Fort Collins and turn West (left).

The Caroso Ball is a new event for us this year, modeled on a description in Fabritio Caroso's dance manual "Noblita di Dame" of a late 16th Century Italian Ball. There is a playlist of dances the musicians are prepared to play, and for most dances only one set of dancers is on the floor at a time. It has sometimes been likened to a Bardic for Dancing, one set of couples dancing while the audience watches. It's a different way to appreciate dance, and gives a very accurate feel of Dance Balls in the 16th Century. A more detailed description will be provided at the Ball.

Boar's War

Tir Ysgithr, October 9-12, AS XXXIII (1998)

Ah, the Arts of War! The strategies, the sorties, the besiegers and the besieged. Oh, the war engines, and the quarrels and bolts of conflict. All of these and more await you at Boar's War, held in the Barony of Tir Ysgithr (Tucson, Az) at the Pima County Fairgrounds, October 9th through October 12th, 1998. The site opens at 8:00am on Friday, Oct. 9th and closes at 5pm on Monday.

Boar's War is a theme war, and -- you guessed it -- siege is this year's theme. All of the scenarios will center on and around a motte and bailey. This allows the fighting to be fast and furious with only short breaks between scenarios. It also gets the participants off the field and to the showers before the hottest part of the afternoon.

The two principal parties of Boar's War are the Barony of Tir Ysgithr (The Kingdom of Atenveldt) and The Citadel of the Southern Pass (The Kingdom of the Outlands). We invite all of our neighbors to come and swell the ranks, the more the merrier! Everyone will get to attack and defend, and forces will be divided by Baronies to even the sides.

Not enough fighting for you? Fear not, fighting resumes after the sun sets. A tourney will be held by torch light on the grass near the hall. Within the eric, while the drums beat, hardsuit fighters will compete in a tourney. A drum competition and a middle-eastern dance competition will be held at the same time.

Although we do not have Pueblo Hall this year (bring your shade pavilions), there will be Merchants, Courts, and Arts and Sciences activities. We will have a tavern where packaged beer will be available for sale (sorry, no alcohol can brought onto the site due to the class six liquor license).

Current plans include; a Laurels' prize tourney, a Bardic competition on Friday night followed by "The Gong Show" (please bring your filk, bad acting, and worst dancing) a desert revel followed by court dancing, and a medieval fashion show. For archers there is a fully shaded and bermed archery field as well as a cross-country range. Prize shoots and royal hunts are also being planned. The equestrians are promising a competition worthy of the known world, with a prize to match its stature. The rapier fighters of both Kingdoms are designing their scenarios. Also planned is a boffer war scenario. Greater detail will follow in upcoming articles.

Merchant packets are available now. Please contact any of the autocrats with suggestions, comments, or questions.

The site fees are as follows (Cash only, please):

Windkeep, October 10-11, AS XXXIII (1998)

The Shire of Windkeep would like to welcome all who wish to teach and learn to the Outlands A&S Collegium. The site for the event will be Laramie County Community College, and all arrangements for classes are being handled by the Outlands Minister of Arts and Sciences, Contesâ Mikhulinádoch Korabĺnikova zhena. Please contact her if you wish to teach any classes.

To present a suitable repast for an event such as this, Mistress Aldyth Trefaldwyn has agreed to assemble a group of the finest cooks in the Outlands, perhaps even the Knowne World, to prepare the feast. The feast will be done as a cooks challenge, with each cook preparing a single course based on a list of predetermined ingredients. The kitchen will be open for those who are interested in learning more about feast preparation and planning. All those who have food allergies or special dietary requirements should contact the feast coordinator.

Due to the nature of the feast, advance feast reservations are required and will NOT be available at the door, so that we can accurately plan and allow our group of cooks to be prepared. Feast and site fee are $15.00, with children 6-12 $7.50 and children 5 and under free. Site fee only will be $7.00 for adults, $3.50 for children 6-12. Palmer Fund at A&S

Outlands A&S Collegium, October 10-11, AS XXXIII (1998)

At the October 10th Outlands Arts & Sciences Collegium an auction will be held to initiate a charitable fund, to be known as the Palmer Fund. This non-profit charitable institution will exist to provide financial assistance to Outlanders with medical problems. The Fund will provide, on a case by case basis, grants of money for such things as co-payments, utility bills, lodging for someone who may have to be away from home for treatment, and head coverings for chemo patients. It is not anticipated that the Fund will be able to cover large hospital bills, but it is envisioned as a means to aid Outlanders through times of temporary financial difficulty caused by medical problems.

The Palmer Fund auction is made possible by a generous donation of some 30 - 40 pieces of SCA garb. HE Countess Beatrix von Wertenberg has kindly given us her "closet" for this purpose. The articles of clothing and other SCA accoutrements are extremely well made, and very beautiful, as you may ascertain yourself by going to The Palmer Fund web page at http://www.geocities.com/Athens/Ithaca/4582/ to view at least some of them. All of the items will be on display and will be available for trying on at the A&S Collegium, and there will be both a silent and an "out loud" auction. It is hoped that the clothiers and artisans will continue to support Her Excellency's generosity, and that this auction will become an annual event, and the Fund a viable asset for the people of the Outlands.

It must be noted that the Palmer Fund will be an entity separate from the SCA. It is a New Mexico corporation with no financial ties to any barony, shire, or the Kingdom of the Outlands. No SCA monies will be involved in any way.

For the time being, inquiries about the Fund, or the auction are to be directed to: Duchess Elisheva bat Simon halevi (Corinne M Dowd), 8517 Marquette NE Apt N, Albuquerque, NM 87108, (505) 268-3633 Home voice, (505) 881-4090 Fax, dchssheva@aol.com

Sack of the City III

Nahrun Kabirun, October 23-25, AS XXXIII (1998)

There are reports of a renegade Baron who has occupied an abandoned city in the south. They say he is using this base to raid and coerce the southern shires into following him. It is even said that he plans to use this base to challenge the suzerainty of the King! His Majesty's loyal Baron of the Citadel of the Southern Pass has given countenance to an expedition. The mission is to test the truth of these rumours. Now here you are. As you march through the abandoned streets, is it your imagination or did you hear something? Could there still be life here? Or, more importantly, could there still be death?

The shires of Nahrun Kabirun and Loch Thioram are hosting Sack of the City once again. Forget the hay bales. Remember the battle in the rocks from "Conan the Barbarian?" That is the setting for this battle. The site is the City of the Rocks State Park, NM. The site will open on Friday at 5pm. On Saturday starting at 10am, two heavy armies will fight it out in a series of five battles, with combat archery allowed. After lunch, those fighters still up to combat will divide up for a timed resurrection battle. Saturday evening will have a bardic competition around the bonfire. On Sunday again at 10am, the rapier combatants will take to the city for their own series of five battles. Afterwards, they too will have a timed resurrection battle for those still up to fighting. There will also be tournaments for both on the days that they are not in the city, with the extremely popular "Highlander" Tourney returning on Sunday. Site closes at 5pm on Sunday.

Throughout the weekend there will be an Arts & Sciences competition, IKAC, novelty shoots and combat archery for the archers, and a boffer version of Sack of the City for the kids (BYOBoffer).

The site has a few showers, bathrooms of both types, picnic tables and fixed grills. The site is wet. There is also the Faywood Hot Springs 2 miles from the site. The cost for the weekend is $10 for adult members, half price for children. There is a member discount of $3. Please make checks payable to SCA – Nahrun Kabirun.

Hobgoblins Haunt

Scorpions Hollow, October 31-November 1, AS XXXIII (1998)

Again a fell presence makes itself felt in our fair Shire: livestock has gone missing, crops are wantonly destroyed, and children cower from shadows that move of their own accord. Elda Ugli walks again upon Midgard. While our people are exceedingly brave, our numbers are not enough - we require the combined stength of the Outlands and our brave allies from Ansteorra to throw the beast back into the pit from which it was spawned.

The site will open at 6pm on Friday, October 30, and close at 2pm on Sunday, November 1. Fees are $4 for the site, and $4 for the feast.

There will be camping, and the site is discreetly wet. All pets must be leashed with the leash attached to the animal's owner or a stationary structure.

Directions: Take your best route to Clovis, NM. Head north on Highway 209 (aka Prince Street) to Ned Houk Park, which is actually in Portales. A map will appear in the October Outlandish Herald.

Glory! Thank You

The Barony of Unser Hafen would like to thank all of the brave souls who courageously battled the heat as well as two-headed giants and without whom the inaugural Glory! would not have been a success. A special thanks to TRM's, to their Excellencies of al-Barran, Dragonsspine and Caerthe, as well as to our visiting Barons from Artemisia and Calontir as well as guests from as far away as Ansteorra. Glory! was made wonderful by all the gracious gentles who attended. For those who did not --- there's always next year!

Tel Tales™ by Telbyrne Morningstar, OL

It's about time...

SON, THERE'S NOTHING MORE DEPRESSING THAN BEING DEFEATED BY SOMEONE YOUNGER THAN YOUR ARMOR.
BUT, POPS. YOU KNEW IT WOULD HAPPEN SOMEDAY. BESIDES YOU CAME IN SECOND.
WINNER'S CIRCLE
BUT I DID NOT EXPECT IT TO BE MY GRANDDAUGHTER!
WHAT A FIGHT, GRAMPS. YOU ALMOST GOT ME.
OH, AND DAD...
DON'T HATE ME FOR KNOCKING YOU OUT IN THE FIRST ROUND.
DON'T REMIND ME.
